PAIN POINT

Wasting time going into the office just to submit or sign a documents.
Delayed approval process as the employee must wait for the approvers to approve at the office.
Lack of visibility as it is unknown what stage of approval the document is in.

Too much time spent on searching for information needed from piles of documents.
Business workflows interrupted by scattered, hard-to-find information

Increasing cost of paper and office supplies.
Lack of flexibility and inconvenience when working outside of the office
